RUG HOOKING AND APPLIQUE FROM THE ST. CROIX VALLEY AND BEYOND

Fiber artists let their creativity take flight while enjoying the tactile qualities of working with wool, silk, velvet, and other fabrics. Whatever an artist's skills and materials may be, they come through in a fresh and unique expression.

In this year's exhibit, you will see a sampling of styles and projects that are personal favorites of our participating artists. Works of appliqué, hooking, and other techniques utilizing a variety of textiles, yarns, ribbons, lace, specialty threads, and beads are displayed.

Look closely to see the beautiful fabrics and decorative elements incorporated into these works. Enjoy!
