About Karen's Students

Karen teaches classes all over the Metro area. She has been teaching monthly (and sometimes twice a month!) at Stillwater Public Library for several years. Her classes are always in high demand, and many students attend month after month. They are always learning something new!

Please see more information about Karen's students in the gallery exhibit.

About Karen Chan

Karen is an artist, art instructor, and artpreneur. Her mission is to inspire, to educate, and to serve the art community and beyond. She loves to paint still life subjects in oil and acrylics. She is particularly drawn to porcelain objects and flowers. Inspired by the Old Masters' chiaroscuro style, Karen strives to achieve depth and drama with the use of light and shadows. Embracing the spontaneity of alla prima techniques, she aims to captivate viewers through bold and confident brushstrokes.

Karen invites you to explore her art and immerse yourself in the visual stories she creates
